FOREWORD

The senior class of 1955, presents the "Falcon"--a complete yearbook. In it, we hope to record the progress of every individual, class, organization, and department of the college, and to show our parents, friends, and alumni what we have done in extra-curricular activities. A special feature in this yearbook is the Greek section in color.

We are living in great hope that this will be a steppingstone to many more issues of the "Falcon."

To the patrons and friends who have helped make the publication of this annual possible, we express our most sincere appreciation.

DEDICATION

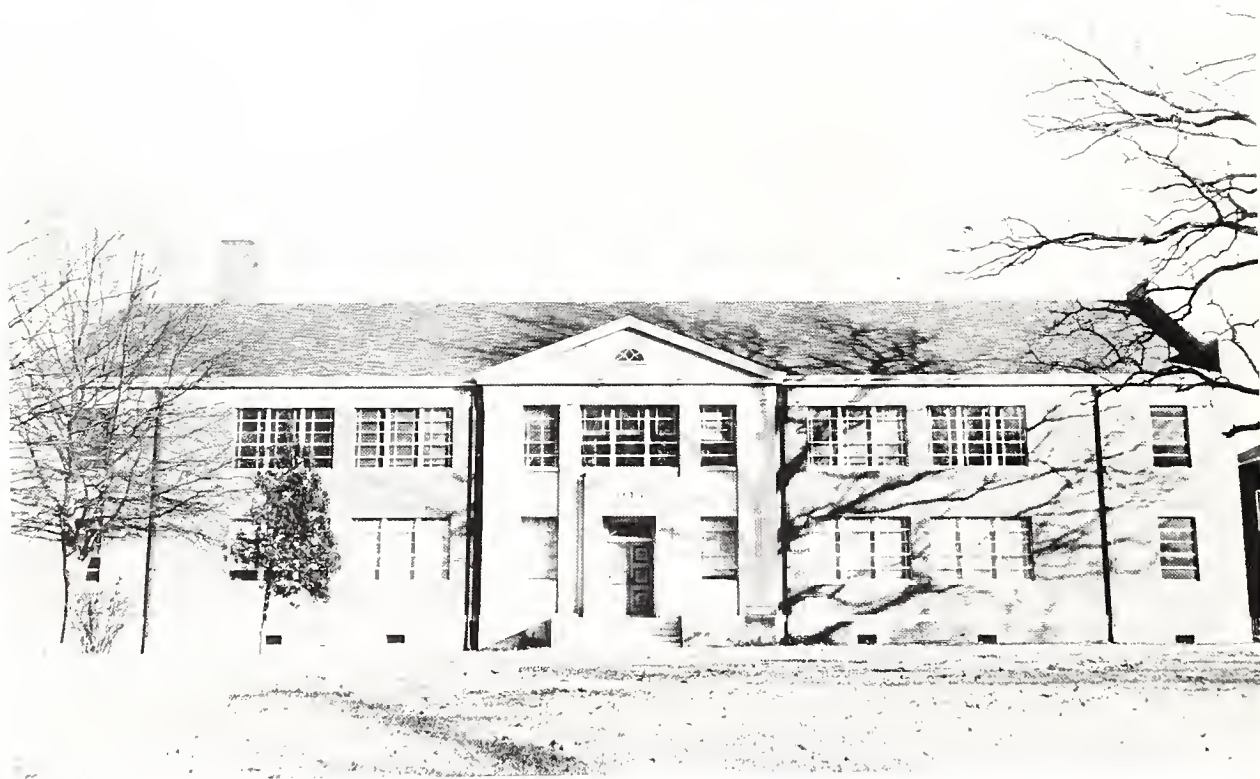

THE REVEREND MR. SAMUEL D. RUDDER

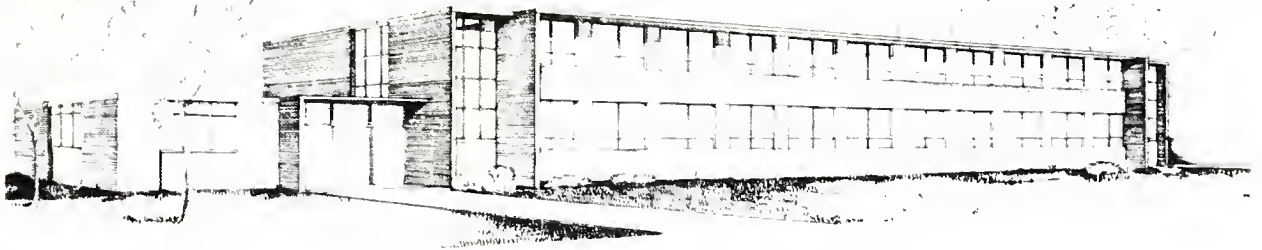

We, the 1955 graduating class of St. Augustine's College, are honored to have such a man of wisdom, consideration, patience, and benevolence as the Reverend Mr. Samuel D. Rudder for our College Chaplain and faculty member. It is therefore to you, sir, with deep reverence and humility that we dedicate the 1955 "Falcon". We feel that it is fitting and proper that we do so in recognition of your distinguished work here, and in sincere gratitude for all the help and guidance you have given to us and to the other students of St. Augustine's College.

CLASS HISTORY

What peaceful hours we once enjoyed--a chant that will become more familiar to us as the years go steadily by, and our thoughts turn again and again to the blissful, carefree years we spent here at St. Augustine's. Let us review these years, and recall every incident lest we lose the enchantment of each precious moment.

Timidly and with a flush of green, 120 new faces appeared on the campus of St. Augustine's College on September 17, 1951. These were the prospective members of the Class of 1955 and with this objective in mind the freshman unpacked their bags and set forth boldly to make their presence known and felt. Their efforts were thwarted and spirits cooled by the proficient and learned upperclassmen, who were unimpressed except by the green on their faces.

Within a short time, we became accustomed to our new way of life and began to get into the swing of things. We elected an able body of class officers, headed by Horace Wade. Freshmen joined the choir, the choral club, dramatic guild, Greek-letter organizations, the brotherhood of St. Andrew, etc. We identified ourselves academically, too, for the Freshmen class had the best representation on the Dean's list. Our attendant to Miss St. Augustine's that year was V. Collins.

None of us will ever forget our talent night when we discovered that among us were such gifted artists as Doris Marie Scott and Vanilla Anderson.

During this year, Herbert Oldman distinguished himself by being elected "Athlete of the Year." Hillart Parker, Phillip Hand, William Alston, Wilson McDowell and others maintained rigid training schedules as they struggled to keep their berths on the football team.

After a year and a summer, we had become adjusted to college routine and return in the fall of 1952 more determined than ever to reach our goal. We were fewer in number, however, missing such persons as Nancy Boyd, Daisy McManus, Patricia Fryar, Lerlene Higgs, Horace Wade, Katherine Gordon, Hilda Purvis, Jean McDaniels, Katie McCoy, Dorothea Wilder, Inez Knox and Janet Bowsler. Of course, their loss was compensated for by Janet Sames, Elouise Perry, Genora Lassiter, Susie Moore, Doris Gibson, Nellie Johnson, Jesse Robinson, Mary Ridley, Joseph Perry, Doris Roane, Emma McNeil, LaVern McCommings and Annie Ruth Monk.

Our Class officers, headed by Willie Battle, set forth to again lead us through a successful year. Again, we were well represented on the Dean's list and in the various activities of the college. Arthur Taplett was elected President of the Regional Canterbury Commission a position which he held for two years.

In the court of beauty, our freshman year Valonia Collins; sophomore year, Gladys Townes was our attendant; junior year, Evangeline Basnight succeeded Gladys Townes as our Attendant to "Miss St. Augustine's".

Evidently the rigorous training schedule that Herbert Oldham, Hillard Parker, Wilson McDowell and Phillip Hand stuck to was to their own advantage, for they were still members of the football squad and basketball team. This was St. Augustine's great year in basketball. We were runners-up in the CIAA Tournament; our Coach, Mr. R. D. Moore was elected "Coach of the Year," and our Freshman player, Clarence Burks, was elected "Most Valuable Player."

At the President's Assembly, some members of our class again distinguished themselves by receiving certificates of merit for their participation in and contribution to the affairs of the college. At the close of this year, we left for home with the hope of returning the next year as sophisticated Juniors.

As before, we were fewer in number, but we still remained strong in the spirit of determination, and determined we were. Ten of our classmates were tapped by Alpha Kappa Mu, Four by Phi Kappa Alpha, Five by Sigma Rho Sigma, Five by Alpha Kappa Delta. These students were Sarah Virgo, Azella Foster,

Willie Battle, Rosa Walker, Marsellette Baker, Beatrice Bright-Davies, Leo Oxley, Thelma Washington, Marie Sherrod, Matilda Moore, James Lockhart and William Brodie. Our President that year was Wilson McDowell.

St. Augustine's College did not go to the tournament this year, but as before Herbert Oldham was all-conference and through the efforts of Hillard, Wilson McDowell, Phillip Hand and others, we had a successful year in football.

The dramatic club gave numerous successful presentations of "The Robe". Jesse Robinson and Arthur Taplett from our class played leading roles. Pattie Johnson was the leading lady. Behind the scenes, Doris Gibson and Rosa Andrews applied the necessary makeup.

This year, we elected Evangeline Basnight to attend Miss St. Augustine's. Aesthetically Leo Oxley played his rendition of "Dream of Olwen" on the "Stars of Tomorrow" show, while politically, Willie Battle introduced a bill to the State Legislature. Mr. Oxley also represented St. Augustine's College at the UNCF Conference in Washington, D.C.. Doris Lynch visited Virginia as our representative to the Women's Federate Convention. With the end of our Junior year drawing near, we began to feel anxious and elated at the prospect of being "The" Upperclassmen, and Dignified Seniors.

When the fall of 1954 arrived, we returned, eager to complete our course of studies and take our places as alumni of St. Augustine's College. We again elected Wilson McDowell President. Other officers were Jesse Robinson, V. Pres.; Marsellette Baker, Recording Sec.; Marie Sherrod, Corr. Sec.; Arthur Taplett, Treas.; and James Lockhart, Business Manager. Willie Battle was elected editor of the year. We appointed Doris Lynch and Yvonne Mitchell to compose the class song; Arthur Taplett to write the Prophecy; Azella Foster and Marie Sherrod to write the class history and Beatrice Bright-Davies to write the class poem.

Yvonne Mitchell and Arthur Taplett were newcomers to the honor societies. Willie Battle, Marsellette Baker, Beatrice Bright-Davies, Thelma Washington, Sarah Virgo, Matilda Moore, Rosa Walker. Arthur Taplett, Leo Oxley and Marie Sherrod were elected to membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Our region of Alpha Kappa Mu was presided by our own Leo Oxley.

During our senior year, the office of Student Council President gained much dignity under the leadership of James Lockhart and our senior representatives, Yvonne Mitchell and Leo Oxley very ably interpreted our wishes to our student government.

In the world of sports, Herbert Oldman was elected again all-conference; and he and Hillard Parker worked together as co-captains of the football team. Under their influence, the team saw another successful year. At the CIAA Tournament, our boys though defeated were still unconquered in spirit.

On Mother's Day, Yvonne Mitchell and Doris Lynch made their debut at their Senior Recital. Their days of rigid practice were well-spent, for both young ladies rendered music which we will never forget. Doris Lynch also sang on the "Stars of Tomorrow" Talent Show.

To expedite the announcing of bulletins, our class decided to leave to this college, a public address system in the dining hall.

Slowly, but surely, the pages of our yearbook began to fall into place. As we looked about us for someone to whom we could dedicate this culmination of our fondest memories, we could think of no one more dear to us than our Chaplain, the Reverend, Father Samuel D. Rudder.

As we look back through the years, tears cloud our eyes as we realize the finality of this year. As each tiny memory pushes itself to the foreground, we can truly say--What peaceful hours we once enjoyed--.

THE PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1955

Dear Lockhart,

Time really flies doesn't it? It seems as though it were only a year since we left school but this is 1965, and in the next two months we will have our class reunion. Once again we will be renewing friendships from our college days.

During the past few years, I have been in contact with and met several of our classmates. You will be surprised to learn of the marvelous achievements they have made. They truly have been beacon lights of the high ideals and principles of Saint Augustine's College.

Dr. Leo Oxley and his college sweetheart are settled in their Massachusetts mansion. He is the visiting professor at the Harvard Medical School. Soloist Doris Lynch has just given an outstanding recital at the Palladium in London. Yvonne Mitchell has been accompanying her. They both are great. Joseph Perry, Agnes Parker, Mary Ridley, and Doris Roane have recently opened one of the finer business schools in the country. Also Drs. William Brodie, Rosa Walker, and Phillip Hand, have just opened up their new research center in Chicago, following their recent discovery of a cure for cancer. Willie Battle is now a very prominent psychologist in New York City. Mrs. Richard Cox, the former Rosa Lee Cogdell, is in her Trenton, New Jersey home raising her eight fine sons. Miss Marsellette Baker recently received her Ph. D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania; she is now the associate professor at the New York School of Social Work. Gloria Haskins is singing and playing on her own T.V. Show these days in Los Angeles. Dr. James Revis has just finished another book in the field of History. You know he is professor of History at Columbia University. Marie Sherrod, Professor of French at Yale University, has recently returned from Europe where she had been studying on a Fulbright Scholarship.

Of course you have been reading about Herbert Oldham's great fetes on the football field. He is one of the finest players in the game. Ulysses Madison and his wife Edna Mitchell as well as Robert Ingraham and his wife Vanilla Anderson are living on easy street. They own a very fashionable night spot in Detroit. Wilson McDowell and his wife Gladys are teaching at the University of Illinois, where Wilson is also head coach. Miss Thelma Washington is the leading student in her class at the University of Chicago Law School. Sarah Virgo is currently touring Europe and writing numerous novels. Her prolific pen is producing great material.

Azella Foster, a federal social employee, is making an outstanding contribution to the community life of the Hawaiian Islands where she is now employed. Beatrice Bright-Davies and Valonia Collins are two of the coaches with the American Olympic Team this year. Ruby Campbell and Telza Lee are employed as secretaries on the White House Staff. Halcy Haywood, Delois High, and Loree Hines have just completed a book on Elementary Education. They are all professors in the field at the University of Minnesota.

Hillard Parker, head coach of the University of Southern California, has been having some great seasons out there with his boys. Coach William Alston is working there with him. Dorothy Rollins, Eloise Perry, and Commie Landis are in the real estate business together. They have a lovely office in Philadelphia. Mrs. Sarah Chapple, once a confidential secretary in the American Legation in Rome, has been appointed consul to Liberia, West Africa.

I am sure you remember Sarah Harding and Molly Ferrell; well they are secretaries to the American delegation at the United Nations Building in New York. Pattie Johnson is married and has seven healthy boys. In her spare time she writes plays, and has won an Academy Award for one of them. Mary Thompson is the principal of the largest elementary school in Washington, D. C. She has four of our classmates, Mattie Wiggins, Marie Scott, Patricia Perry, and Louise Jordan working with her. They are employing the very latest techniques in elementary education at that school.

Do you remember Emma McNeil? Well, she is the librarian at Princeton University. Mable Forte and Vertie Poole are in Paris with Lawrence Overton. They are the owners of a large catering business there. Richard Elliott and his lovely bride have a fabulous home in Germany overlooking the Rhine. He is that country's renowned interior decorator. Cynthia Harris Moseley is married to that famous basketball player and is living, with their twelve children, in their lovely Chicago home. She must be an adherent to the doctrine "Cheaper by the Dozen". The Government has engaged Maureen Anderson, Estelle DeBose, Doris Jones, and Gladys Townes to do a research project to be presented to the Senate, on the conditions of the elementary schools in Japan. This is part of our foreign aid policy.

I am sure that you have heard that Jesse Ray Robinson has been selected as the ambassador to Sweden. Hazel Sampson, Marjorie Wilkins, Gertha Williams, Joyce Smith, Rosa Andrews, and Doris Gibson have just published a tremendous volume on the co-relation between the social and natural sciences for Oxford University. The critics say its a great study. Robert Sewell is a top insurance executive with North Carolina Mutual. Rosa McIntosh is his Secretary. Miss Susie Moore, Hazel Chapman, and Matildia Moore are all doing biological research in India for the American Medical Association.

Drs. Fannie James, Nellie Johnson, Lettie Harris, and Mary Harry are all doing outstanding work in their fields on the University of Wisconsin Faculty.

Lurena Morgan is the secretary to the President of the University of Cambridge in Scotland. Dr. Josephine Leach is State Supervisor of Elementary Schools in North Carolina. She received her Ph.D. only last year from the University of North Carolina. Our former classmates Evangeline Basnight and Saide Fields are both happily married now and have twenty children. Ten a piece, that is.

Well, Dr. Lockhart I will see you at the reunion for you must tell me about the new hospital you have just established on the West Coast.

Your former class and roommate,

Arthur Taplett

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the class of 1955, being in good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament. As to such estate as it has pleased the fates and our own capable hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

To our Acting President, Dr. James Boyer, we bequeath our undying love and affection for the guidance and justice he so graciously gave us.

To our Deans, Faculty and Staff, we bequeath our sincere love and appreciation for their unfailing kindness and aid.

To our Advisor, Mr. Ball, we bequeath our gratitude and thanks for being our rock and mainstay, and wish for him success with other students in years to come.

To the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, we leave our most important and valuable properties, our self-satisfaction, our importance, and our wisdom we possess in enormous quantities and we hope that the said gifts will be used with pride.

To the Sophomore Class, we bequeath the ability to face and overcome any tasks which confront them before graduation.

To our friends, the Freshman Class, we leave the courage to endure any obstacles which they might encounter before they become Seniors.

The following may seem trifling bequeaths, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things, lavishly thrown away, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, and a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our bestowal.

Valonia Collins wills to all the girls left behind her Aldean Moore as a Rose to be looked at, and not to be plucked; to Gladys Bullock to keep the Virginia's smiles going.

Rosa McIntosh wills her ability to take dictation at 150 words a minute to Miriam Cagle; to Betty Byers her heights and her place among the girls in Tuttle Building.

Vanilla Anderson bequeaths her room in Tuttle Building to Joan King and Vivian Davis in hopes they will keep it as clean as she did.

Marjorie Wilkins wills to Mary Evelyn Peay a pair of her glasses, hoping that they will enable her to see what she's missing in this big, wide, wonderful world.

To Goldie Thomas, Dorothy Rollins wills her position as Secretary to the Athletic department.

Rosa Andrews wills George Brodie to the Campus girls to be seen and heard but not touched. So be it; Her seat in the Drug Store to anyone who feels they are able to occupy it.

Azella Foster wills to Carolyn Mackey her ability to stay up all Night and get to her 8 o'clock class, on time the next morning; to Lelia Amons her ability to eat and gain weight.

Ruby Campbell wills to her good friends Delois Thomas and Goldie Thomas her pleasing personality and ability to stay out of trouble.

Rosa Lee Cogdell wills her place in Zeta Phi Beta Sorority to Emma Vicks and Darline Esters.

Susie Moore wills to Mildred Baines her exotic walk and may she accomplish by it.

Gertha Williams wills room 17, which is directly above Dean Dickens, to Mildred Baines and Lois Jones.

Cynthia Harris wills her pleasing personality to Shirley Addison and her Lesson Plans to Lelia Amons; to Edward Tyler (Bu Bu) her ability to attend all classes.

Marsellette Baker wills to Goldie Thomas her undying devotion to Delta Sigma Theta and her room in Tuttle to Delois Thomas.

Estelle DeBose wills to Goldie Thomas her ability to attend all Sorority meetings and above all be on time.

Lurena Morgan wills to Margaree Jones her ability to get to office Practice every day on time, and eat candy in class without getting caught.

Gladys Townes wills her ability to do her Practice Teaching during the summer to Barbara Parker.

Hazel Sampson wills her pleasing personality to Patricia Davis and may she use it.

Doris Lynch wills her voice to Vivian Davis so that she can be heard in the choir.

Molly Ferrell wills Shirley Perry her pleasing personality and ability to get sick everyday in 10:30 classes.

Fannie James wills her love for Elementary Education to Doris Burney and wishes her much success.

Sadie Fields bequeaths her pleasant smile to Lillie Weston and to Helen McClain her position in Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Emma McNeil wills to her cousin, Mary Green, her position in the Seniors Class.

Beatrice Bright-Davies wills to Ernestine Bullard and Carolyn Mackey her ability to sing and tap dance and to Ilene Moore her ability to grin and bear it.

Evangeline Basnight bequeaths her room in Tuttle Building to Eva Sanders in hopes she will keep it as clean as she has.

Marie Sherrod bequeaths to Cinda Ann Rowland whatever stamina she may have left after four years of "toil" in the Dean's office in the hope that it will help to see her through safely and sanely.

Nellie Johnson wills to Virgie Basnight her ability to wear heels everyday and may she never suffer from fallen arches as she does.

To Peggy Cagel, Maureen Anderson leaves her beautiful legs, hoping in the near future she will receive as many compliments as she has and to Delois Thomas her lasting happiness and pleasing personality among the girls.

Doris Gibson wills her seat in Chapel to Evelyn Burwell.

Mattie Wiggins wills her personality to Soror Carolyn Mackey.

Doris Jones wills to Barbara Mosee her position as Captain of the Cheering Squad and to DeJuanna Browning her ability to be on time to sorority meetings.

Willie Battle wills his coolness to Richard Cox, James Clark, and Sidney Smith, also he wills his nickname "Check" to anyone who deserves it.

Lettie Jane Harris wills her Elementary Method Book to Frances Louise Coble.

To Alma Taylor, Delois High leaves her ability to get along with others.

To Janet Schumpert, Leo Oxley leaves his position as Assistant Chapel Organist and to Robert Turner, he leaves his ability to have six successful explosions in the Organic Chemistry Laboratory.

Josephine Leach wills to Laura Coy and Mable Brown much love and success in their college work.

Joyce Smith wills to James Dawson and Frances Butcher her hard struggle through college with the hope that they will endure to the end.

To Iris L. Collins and Catherine B. Woods, Louise Jordan bequeaths her scant store of knowledge and hopes they will add to it and put it to a far greater use than was in her power.

Matilda Moore wills her position in Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority to Jeanette Moore and to Ina Holloway her ability to get along with other people.

Wilson McDowell wills his ability to get along with everyone to anybody who needs it. To Leon Patton, McDowell wills his ability to keep a smile on his face at all times.

If there has been anything commendable in his work, thought, or life at the College, Arthur Taplett wills that to those who would have it.

James Lockhart leaves to James Clark part of his devout love and devotion for St. Augustine's college and to all of the Alphas, he leaves part of his love devotion for Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

James Revis wills to James Wooden his ability to understand women.

Jesse Robinson bequeaths a portion of his perseverance to Richard Cox and to the Pre-theologians of St. Augustine's College; he wills part of his ability to live a righteous, clean and sober life.

If there is any property of ours which we have not bequeathed, we leave our executors to use as they see fit.

Signed this day,
Here Witnesseth:
